

“Mission Irresistible”
by Oksana Ponomarova

Cast of characters

Kira is Russian, she is a KGB agent and an arms dealer also, considered by those who know one of the best at both.

David is a NY senator, who as a member of the Armed Services Committee oversees new military acquisitions. David, a former District attorney, has a love of beautiful women and has a string of escorts in several cities.

Jerry is from Hong Kong and an international man of mystery, a socialite and a man of no clear occupation.

Sergie is a KGB agent and Kira's contact in the US

Peter is a CIA agent specializing in counter espionage.

Jeremy is a military expert and a contractor for Lockheed

Jenna works for Peter at the CIA

Gary is a Professor at George Washington University

Lynn is a client at Kira's Fashion Store and David's wife

Joani is a friend of Kira

Tough Guy 1 henchmen for Jerry

Tough Guy 2 henchmen for Jerry

INT. White Flint Mall - AFTERNOON

Kira owns a fashionable boutique store full of gowns and dresses that the beautiful society women of WDC 'must have'. The show room is gorgeous and full of spectacular Vera Wang dresses and other top designers. The atmosphere is stylish and relaxed. Many of the clients have been coming there a long time.

KIRA

JOANI, how great to see you! You look amazing.

JOANI

So wonderful to be here I have missed you and your fabulous collections.

This is my friend Lynn, I have told her all about your great place.

LYNN

Hi, so nice to finally come out to see your place. I have heard so many great things, cant wait to see them.

JOANI

Lynn is married to Senator Brown (DAVID) and so must look great for a big political function on the hill next week. What do you have that would make her the belle of the ball?

KIRA

Well let me show you some new dresses that will be a perfect match for what you need.

AUTHOR

KIRA does not even flinch when she realizes that this is the wife of her current 'male friend'.

INTERIOR LOCATION COFFEE SHOP - DAY

After a few hours KIRA takes a break and goes to the coffee shop to relax and hoping to meet GARY, the George Washington University professor who she admires for his intellect and humor and seems a little different from every other man she runs into – one dimensional guys with an ability to loose all intelligence the minute they look into her eyes.

GARY is a person who loves his work as a teacher and a researcher. He makes a good living and seemingly quite content with life, not chasing dreams or women, but still trying to leave his mark on the world through his research.

GARY

Hi Kira, I am so happy to see you.
Glad that we both have a healthy addiction to Coffee,
he laughs.

KIRA

Hi Gary, I am glad you are here too; I was hoping
I would see you.

GARY

I have not seen you for a while how is your store doing?

KIRA

It has been a while. How is your research going?

GARY

Fine I think we will soon see the application of the research in practice.

KIRA

Really? There is finally a way to use the stealth technology

GARY

I can't tell you but we are applying it on a top-secret military option

KIRA

How will you know it will work?

GARY

We have successfully completed our tests and it was remarkable.

KIRA

That is so exciting!

GARY

Kira, your interest in my work has been very satisfying to me and I had no idea that you would have turned into such a keen student.
You are an interesting person I would never have thought.....

KIRA

Yes, you do not need to say it, I don't look the type, and she laughs.

GARY

Very few people in the world have any real understanding of my advanced technological design. You are one of the few non-scientists who has shown an interest.

KIRA

Well you are a great teacher and I really enjoy our discussions.

AUTHOR

What Gary does not know is that he was hand picked due to his knowledge and expertise to provide critical information for Kira's other work.

Kira likes Gary and really does enjoy his company.

INTERIOR MAYFLOWER HOTEL WDC - NIGHT

Kira and David are lovers. David thinks Kira is a beautiful Russian escort who he has been seeing for 6 months. Kira sees David every month and they have a great time together. What David does not know is that Kira is a Russian spy and is using him to get information about arms deals as David is on the Armed Services Committee. David can't see much beyond Kira's long shapely legs and has no clue as to what Kira is really up to.

Kira and David are in the bedroom. David is getting dressed, smiling and happy. Kira is getting dressed and putting on her make up.

KIRA

Must you leave? (She purrs)

DAVID

You know I have to, don't tease me!

KIRA

Yes I know you have very important meetings to go to, much more important than me!

DAVID

You are a crazy women, and yes the senate armed forces committee meeting is a big deal for which I will be late after the last 3 hours with you.

AUTHOR

David goes to the bathroom. Kira swiftly grabs a pin (a microphone) from her hair and puts it on the back of his lapel. She goes back to the mirror and studies her split ends.

David puts on his jacket and walks over to kiss Kira.

KIRA

Have fun at your meeting; try not to think of me! (She smiles knowing he would be incapable of any such deed after the last few hours)

DAVID

I would prefer to stay but the safety of America and the free world is in my hands!

KIRA

Ciao

DAVID

Bye

AUTHOR

Kira goes to the desk and activates the microphone to make sure she can hear the senator – it works like a charm. Kira tests the microphone as David drives away, it works fine and she smiles to herself as her plan begins to come to fruition. She listens in as David explains to his wife Lynn why he couldn't go home last night. Her thought turns to how crazy this country is that this kind of man is one of the 10 most powerful men in the country and how easy he could be manipulated.

INTERIOR Senator's Office WDC – DAY

AUTHOR

David gets to his office after the meeting and sits down with Jeremy the Lockheed Martin military expert, who is the principal adviser on the G4 Stealth warship project.

David gets to guide the voting on the Armed Forces Committee on major projects and this is a big deal even by Military standards.

DAVID

OK Jeremy tell me the new G4 stealth warship works and how it works?

JEREMY

The warship is invisible and undetectable by sonar, radar or any other tracking device, it is a phenomenon!
A complete breakthrough in stealth technology. You cannot find this even when you know where it is.
(They laugh.)

Whoever has this, can control the game and will be ahead of everyone.

DAVID

At that price it had better be, $20 Billion a ship, and the prototype costs us twice that.
So it unquestionably past all the tests?

JEREMY

Absolutely Senator, you can take that to the hill.

DAVID

OK show me the plans and I will get the committee to sign off on 2 more. Lets meet Friday.

JEREMY

Yes sir.

AUTHOR

David is reassured and sees the accolades in the press and the added power and status that this will give him as his burgeoning budget sets new records in overspending.

Jeremy considers the value to his shares in Lockheed and his status at Lockheed and on the hill, as he is the man.

The blind spot that David has, that he could be conned, never crosses his mind for a moment.

Meanwhile in another part of the beltway his unraveling is in full flow.

INTERIOR   Starbucks Georgetown - DAY

There was more to Kira, than meets the eye, as pleasing as that is, Kira is not only a skilled operative of the KGB, but also an arms dealer using her connections and skills to make lots of money and set up her future life. Kira meets lots of interesting people as she travels the world working for the KGB and some are above board and “good guys” and some not quite so good.

Kira knows, that David provides access to the biggest prize possible, secrets that are worth Hundreds of millions of dollars and that kind of payday, that comes around once in a lifetime to a grafter like her.

Everyone needs a hand. Kira has Jerry. Jerry was a guy who looked like a playboy and could have been the standard issue romantic lead with his Euro-Asian good looks and having enough money to make style look natural on someone, who really did not need the help of Tom Ford and Marc Jacobs.

KIRA

Caramel Latte, please

Jerry

Macchiato for me, please

Jerry

You look amazing!

AUTHOR

he reaches over to kiss her, as she turns her cheek

KIRA

Work before play my dear! You know the rules.

JERRY

We do a lot of work and no play!

AUTHOR

The handsome playboy looks sad like a small boy

KIRA

Soon. We are almost there!

AUTHOR

She puts her hand on his hand and he smiles again hopeful for what they can do together, after the job is over.

JERRY

Well, did you get the information?

KIRA

Yes, we will get the plans on Friday

JERRY

What will you need?

KIRA

I will need the pre-arranged room at the Mayflower with a hidden USB with a de-cryptor and a wireless printer.

JERRY

No problem

KIRA

Did you get the buyers lined up?

JERRY

Of course, the usual suspects – China, Germany, France, Russia

KIRA

Is the going price still $50M?

JERRY

Yes, but if it is as good as they say, we could get a bidding war going!

KIRA

Great, lets take this one home.

JERRY

That's pretty expensive sex you are having!

AUTHOR

He laughs

KIRA

I am good!

JERRY

Do you ever think about that this could start a war?

KIRA

No, that is not my department! If people make expensive toys they should be prepared to loose them!

AUTHOR

Lining up buyers was not easy, but not as difficult as it should be. The internet has been a boon to many. The black market is a pretty useful incognito place to ask for things that would be hard to put 'for sale' sign up.

As Kira was by her very nature a seductress, then her charm obviously would work on a handsome 'player' like Jerry. Jerry although had big plans for Kira, and wanted this to be an end game that they could get out of the business and spend a few years like castaways on foreign shores not having to sell, buy or kill anyone just enjoy some quiet time and spend a few years wrapped around each other. This definitely motivated Jerry and he looked forward to some long overdue happiness in his life, as what people saw on the surface did not match the turmoil, that had gone on in his turbulent upbringing.

Jerry can almost smell the sunscreen as he walks out into the sunlight in Georgetown Square.

INTERIOR   Panera   Dupont Circle - DAYTIME

Kira has to keep all sides happy, so she reports to her handler and smiles, as she once again has impressed her hardened Russian partner, who is amazed at her ability to manipulate so many people to get what she wants.

Although Sergei was clear that she was a great operative, he too had questions about her and was not sure how far he would trust her as it looked like she was always going to take care of her self at all costs.

Maybe all the propaganda, that he had been told, growing up, was true and that American men are only interested in one thing – Sex and power. Kira's ability to play the game to get what she wants, time and time again, was either brilliant or a sad testimony to the intellect and the ego of American men.

The end of the cold war had left many uncertainties in Sergei's world, as the clarity of the Soviet purpose, that had been such a big part of his childhood, was now very thinly disguised by money and power. Maybe it always was that way, but the recent involvement in arms deals and working with mafia types leaves him uneasy at the end of the day, and that even a few long shots of good vodka could not soothe.

KIRA

Privet

SERGEI

Kak dela? Tu dostal informaciu?
How are you?
Did you get the info?

KIRA

Razymeetsya, tu znaesh na menya mozhna raschituvat'
Of course don't I always?

SERGEI

Y nas est' nedelya. Mu dolznu znat' pokypateley
I soobshit' Moskve o nih.

We only have a week. We have to know the buyers and send back to Moscow quickly

KIRA

Nam nygno vse imet' do pyatnicu. Chego eto bydet mne stoit?"

We should have it all on Friday. What will it be worth to me?

SERGEI

Kak naschet vernyt'sya domoy V Moskvu geroem?

How about a return to Moscow as a hero?

KIRA

Tu polychish imena do Sybbotu. Tu znaesh, ya ne predam Rodinu.

You will have the names by Saturday.
Of course I never fail the motherland.

INTERIOR Mayflower Hotel - NIGHTTIME

AUTHOR

David is sleeping soundly, there are wine bottles Muscadet and Champagne and clothes all over the floor. The celebration had gone long into the night as the approval of the Stealth budget for two new ships meant that David's dream of being the man was coming true. Kira really did not need to party heavy in order to get what she needs, as he was not the most observant man to begin with.

Kira Opens the briefcase silently and reaches for the laptop. She opens it and plugs in the decryption USB. She uploads the file silently and without a glitch. Delighted with the ease of getting all she needed, she toasted herself with a sip of champagne and looks up at the roof and whispers $50M "thank you God and America".

What she doesn't know is the alarm bells go off in Langley (CIA headquarters) as the decryption device flagged an alarm.

Interior Langley - NIGHT

Fortunately the CIA had many questions about David's love of party girls, hookers and escorts, as he was too obvious a mark.

The CIA's silent alarm on the laptop was a nice feature as it was undetectable and un-noticable. When Kira opened the laptop she triggered this cunning silent alarm.

The alarm bells go off and an elite team led by the agent Peter is assembled. Mostly the team was a preparation team and a security back up and they were tired of drills especially the type that went off at 3am.

PETER

That's our phone quick go in another room

JENNA

Oh my god I can't believe we are having another drill

PETER

I call the drills – this is no drill!

JENNA

Where is my shoe?

PETER

OK I will leave give me 10 minutes so we don't show up at the same time.

JENNA

Duh, you think! Get out of here.

AUTHOR

Peter and Jenna make their way to the office.

When Peter walked in, they knew this was no drill. The tiredness and sleep dropped from their bodies as he walked through the potential for having a top-secret device like the stealth warship in any one's hands especially knowing it was stolen under their noses.

PETER

We have talked with the Senators security detail and he had only one visitor a woman known as Kira.

We need to find out everything about her now!

Get the senator in here for a briefing

OK we need to focus on the girl and get eyes on everywhere she goes and everyone she knows.

JENNA

OK we will send a full detachment immediately

AUTHOR

The FBI switches into full gear

Interior Langley – Night

PETER

OK senator tell me all you now about the woman

DAVID

There is not much to tell, she is a beautiful Russian woman, who I have seen for the last few months, just a lot of fun, we don't talk a lot.

PETER

Well Senator your fun loving friend has walked off with the plans for the stealth warship!

DAVID

Oh my God! You are joking! How could she have done that, we drunk lots of wine and fell asleep?

PETER

Apparently, you were the one drinking and sleeping, she was walking off with a $20Billion dollar plan.

DAVID

This is a nightmare. What do we do? Where is she?

JENNA

We have checked out Kira and she owns a store in Rock Flint.
Not only that, but your wife, senator, is one of her clients.

DAVID

This can't get any worse -HOLY CRAP!
If the press gets a hold of this, my career is over!

AUTHOR

He stands and throws his glass of water against the wall
He let's out a long groan – and then screams in a high-pitched tone.

INTERIOR    Dupont Circle - DAYTIME

Jerry meets up with Kira and they exchange the data

JERRY

I knew you could do it!

KIRA

Yes it never ceases to amaze me how getting information from a man is so easy.

JERRY

You definitely have a gift

JERRY

Were you followed?

KIRA

Of course not!

JERRY

We are set, the buyers are all lined up

KIRA

Who are the favorites?

JERRY

The Ukrainian Boxer wants to buy it and take it to Russia and blow up the Kremlin!

KIRA

Those Ukrainians are crazy!

JERRY

Here is the data for the meet (giving Kira the info)

KIRA

Here is the USB with the plans.

JERRY

What is going on Kira?
This does not open it has a secondary encryption device on it.

KIRA

I don't know anything about that.

JERRY

We need the algorithm of the design, which is locked out of the program, and the only person who could have that, would be your professor or the senator.

KIRA

No lets keep the Professor out of this; there must be another way

JERRY

We have 24 hours to get this information otherwise the deal will be off the table as too many people will be watching.

What are our options Kira?

KIRA

I don't know I don't like this let's think.
One option is we use the KGB and their encryption program to open this up but we would lose the information that way, or we could get the algorithm from the professor or we can see if David has a password for the encryption program.

None of these options looks good as they involve a lot of downside risks.

Let's think this through

JERRY

You have two options – David or the Professor and the Professor seems like the softer mark

KIRA

I know, but I would prefer not to, if we don't have to.

JERRY

If you won't, I will, and my ways are not as nice as yours.

KIRA

Let me think about this it will be David or the professor.
OK I will get the algorithm one way or another.

INTERIOR 16th Street - NIGHT

Sergei meets up with Kira

KIRA

This is a quite surprise, as you never come to see me!

SERGEI

Yes, I hear you have been very busy

KIRA

Things changed to the plan, but I think it is ok

SERGIE

I don't think so

KIRA

What do you mean?

SERGEI

Kira be very careful the FBI is on to you.

You may have missed something, when you accessed the files.

KIRA

Maybe I underestimated our US friends, she laughs

They want to use the professor, but he has done nothing and is innocent.

SERGEI

I understand.

Be careful Kira the FBI have an elite team tracking you.

KIRA

Thanks Sergei

I will get you the information tonight.

INTERIOR Gary's House Georgetown NIGHT

AUTHOR

Kira stealthily breaks into his apartment and looks for the information. She is skilled at finding all the known hiding places and comes across the hidden files. She puts it away as she hears some noises, she hides.

Two troubling looking men enter the apartment and are obviously looking for something.

Kira had not accounted for Jerry putting in plan B and planning to get the disk from Gary regardless.

Soon the Professor enters and sees the men.

GARY

What are you guys doing here?

TOUGH GUY 1

That's him, lets take him

TOUGH GUY 2

Where is the file professor with the technology?

GARY

I don't know what you are talking about

I am calling security

TOUGH GUY 1

No you are not as he grabs him and pins him down

AUTHOR

Kira cannot take this any more as she does not want him to get hurt. She quickly takes out TG2 with a deft hit to the neck

TOUGH GUY 1

What are you doing here Kira?

KIRA

I am taking care of business

- she kicks him squarely in the jaw

GARY

Kira? What is going on?

KIRA

Gary, I have no time to explain, come with me.

AUTHOR

Gary and Kira go and sit in her car. She explains that there are a lot of bad men interested in his technology and she needs the algorithm.

KIRA

You must help me or a lot of people will get hurt

GARY

I can't it is of national security

KIRA

There will be more guys like those two coming, so it will be easier if you just help me.

GARY

So you have been using me all this time?

KIRA

No, well yes, but no. I like you and have enjoyed our discussions but you were someone I had to get to know.

GARY

I don't know Kira

KIRA

Gary I really do work for the KGB and we are only interested in identifying the people who want to buy this technology to hurt my country, and my people. We don't want to use this ourselves. I need your help.

GARY

OK I am sure we can figure something out here that no one gets the real info and we flush out the bad guys.

KIRA

Thank you Gary.

AUTHOR

Gary figures out a way to provide the encryption, which also provides a false file with misleading information.

INTERIOR Kamatso Sushi restaurant NIGHT

Kira and Jerry met to exchange the information, a nervous and joyous adrenaline flowed through their bodies, as they thought about what they had done, and how it had gone without a hitch, or so they thought.

They discussed the buyers and who had won the bidding. It was the Ukrainian Boxer, who wanted to drive it up the Moscow River and blow up the Kremlin.

JERRY

OK, we have the encryption device and are ready to make the exchange

KIRA

Great we can finally move on and I don't need to see or sleep with that stupid Senator ever again.

JERRY

We are all set, the buyers are lined up

AUTHOR

They review the well-planned exit strategy and are about to breathe a sigh of relief and plan the next part of their lives, when Peter and his team enter with guns out.

PETER

That is as far it goes, good try!

KIRA

I don't know what you are talking about;
she looks up and smiles at the agent.

AUTHOR

Peter is in control of the situation and thinks he has it contained.

Kira is to his side, he turns and tells her to stand up. He is floored by her beauty and for a moment is unable to say anything. He cannot believe how unprofessional he is over seeing such a beautiful woman.

Jenna leads Jerry away, while staring back at Peter to make sure, he knows, she saw his response.

INTERIOR Langley - NIGHT

AUTHOR

Peter and Kira are in the interrogation room

Peter tells Kira that he knows all about her work and this time, she will come to the end of her career. Kira is unresponsive and waits for Peter to say way too much, as she knows, he will.

After a while, she hints to Peter that she knows a lot, and can tell him a lot more.

Peter being the professional that he was, is not going to take the bait, and carries on threatening her. However in the back of his mind is the idea of trusting her and he has no idea where that comes from. He is wondering if she is playing some kind of mind control game. He is enjoying the playful discussions and is surprised by her intelligence and calmness.

PETER

Your work is very impressive

KIRA

I am not saying anything

PETER

You don't need to I have all I need

KIRA

I don't think you know the whole story

PETER

Really?

KIRA

I can show you the real secrets. We have many files on many top politicians and have accumulated a great deal of information about how things work in Washington and the Pentagon. Things even you don't know.

AUTHOR

Peter is intrigued and thinks about, what she could possibly know, that would be useful to the CIA and what he could uncover about KGB operatives in the Beltway.

PETER

What information?

KIRA

We have to go to the Mayflower, so I can show you the files

PETER

I am taking the prisoner to retrieve additional information.
I am taking her under my own recognizance.

AUTHOR

They end up back at the Mayflower.
Kira shows Peter where she keeps the files.

Peter is shocked at the depth of information and is amazed at the coup this is.

Peter does not notice that Kira has taken off the handcuffs and is standing next to him

Kira swiftly and with artistic skills knocks out the unsuspecting Peter.

Kira then disappears, while completing the sale of the false information to the Ukrainian and providing the names of the arms dealers back to the KGB in Russia, saying how and where to capture the Ukrainian boxer.

Later on, a huge donation to the George Washington University research program led by Professor Gary is made from a mystery donor.

Kira is leaving on a motorbike and not heard of again.
